Litigation Services Experience

Below is a brief representative sample of the over 350 matters in which I have been engaged as an expert witness and/or a consultant.

Legend: P-expert/consultant for plaintiff/complainant/claimant

D-expert/consultant for defendant/respondent

Economic damages and forensic accounting services in business litigation matters:

Seller was sued for misrepresentations in connection with sale of business. Determined accuracy of amounts for assets, liabilities and income represented by seller. (D)

Calculated lost profits resulting from customer list stolen by party representing itself as a potential buyer of business. (P)

Challenged the propriety of payments by a medical practice by departing member physician who claimed not to be properly compensated for his interest in the practice. (D)

Disputed the basis for computation of damages in a lawsuit against shipping company for loss on equipment damaged in transit. (D)

Disputed propriety of amount of restitution, sought by an employee claiming to be a shareholder in an apparel manufacturer, for not having received adequate compensation for her interest in the company and her efforts upon termination of her employment. (D)

Analyzed claim by computer manufacturer for amounts due from distributor for the sales of components and undertook determining the disposition of funds of the distributor owed to the manufacturer, which the distributor claimed were depleted as a result of the damages it suffered. (P) In cross-complaint, argued against various damages claimed by the distributor against the manufacturer. (D)

Challenged the propriety of the computations in applying the formula in a buy-sell agreement for the purchase of a shareholder's stock in an S corporation; and calculation of damages relative to the action. (D)

Established an amount of damages resulting from a plumbing contracting company going out of business. Damages were determined primarily based on the value of the company prior to its going out of business and on the future loss of earnings of the principal of the company. (P)

Established amount for damages to an active shareholder of a freight forwarding company who was "locked out" by the other shareholders. The damages were determined based primarily on a valuation of the company. (P)

Analyzed claims by a shareholder of a large advertising and marketing firm that excessive compensation was being paid to the other shareholders, and that other breaches of fiduciary responsibility existed, such as the use of company funds to finance a shareholder's personal activities. (P)

Contested propriety of claim by individual who alleged that employer misstated results of operations of a division through improper accounting practices, resulting in no earnings of the division on which additional compensation was to be calculated. (D) In cross-complaint, established lost profits, value of lost business opportunities and loss of future tax benefits, and the incurring of various costs, resulting from an insurance company refusing to cover costs of other litigation matter. (P)

Challenged the presentation of financial statements that included improper expense allocations and other charges, and incorrect recording of revenues, thus showing reported losses, which were used as the basis to terminate agreement by a credit card bank. (D)

Refuted claims that the business decisions and transactions conducted by an individual prevented other parties' ability to affect a tax-deferred (IRC Section 1031) exchange. (D)

Rebutted a company's claims that, if it were not for a bank's negligence and inactions, the losses it suffered from an embezzlement would have been prevented. (D)

Refuted various calculations used in determining economic damages against a cable company, which, allegedly, were all a result of its improper installation of cable. (D)

Analyzed claims of a minority shareholder of contracting company, which included allegations that the controlling shareholder was misusing and diverting company funds, and was withholding profit distributions to the minority shareholder. (P)

Calculated damages resulting from a stockholder of a company claiming to have received his fair share of the proceeds. (P)

Rebutted claims that the majority stockholders of companies were diverting funds for personal use, not adequately compensating the minority stockholder and undervalued the shares of one of the companies owned by the minority stockholder. (D)

Challenged alter ego claims against the owner of various companies and allegations that the owner had defaulted on loans. (D)

Determined economic results of operations and sales of various rental properties, some of which were to be determined as being wholly owned and other partially owned by Plaintiff. (P)

Rebutted claims that a finance company did not properly manage or account for loans that it purchased with recourse. (D)

Established the value of patent in bankruptcy matter on behalf of a secured creditor asserting right to the patent, which was being challenged by another secured creditor.

Rebutted claims of improper accounting and of damages in connection with factored receivables, and related loans and reserve accounts. (D)

Identified undisclosed commissions, amounting to millions of dollars, on money transfers that were owed to the facilitator of the transactions. (P)

Determined the amount owed to a minority interest owner in a company, based on a value of the ownership interest and on measures of recovery as impacted by actions of the two other owners of the company that were detrimental to the minority interest owner. (P)

Refuted claim for alleged loss of profits from real estate developments resulting from the preclusion of usage of water rights acquired. (D)

Rebutted allegations of lack of standards of care by a certified public accountant in connection with the purported mismanagement of Internal Revenue Service audits, and the alleged ramifications as a result. (D)

Determined monetary damages to a company resulting from a minority stockholder and certain employees using trade secrets and other information of the company to start a competing company. (P)

Determined whether or not the business of a marijuana grower and dispensary, formed as a limited liability company, was viable in terms of meeting its financial obligations and, in a related matter, whether a member interest in the LLC was solvent when transferring an interest in the LLC. (P) (D)

Challenged claim that a member of limited liability company was obligated to pay for a share of expenses and debt of LLC, and established that, in regard to a counterclaim, the member was owed reimbursements for expenses that were improperly attributed to such member. (D)

Lost profits/earnings from personal injury and wrongful death matters:

Rebutted claim for extent of loss of earnings of physician due to auto accident. (D)

Calculated amounts for lost earnings, past and future, from injuries due to a motorcycle defect. (P)

Established amount of loss of earnings of a reputed specialist in his area of practice of medicine resulting from injuries sustained due to a fall. (P)

Refuted the amount of calculated economic damages based on loss of earnings and earning capacity resulting from a motor vehicle accident. (D)

Determined loss of earnings of owner of a business due to very serious bodily injuries from dog bites. (P)

Rebutted claims for loss of earnings and value of business due to an alleged wrongful death resulting from a bicycle accident. (D)

Multiple other matters involving claims of economic damages resulting from personal injuries and from wrongful deaths.

White collar crime:

Embezzlements and various other matters involving alleged criminal activities pertaining to financially related issues.

Family law matters:

A multitude of family law matters, including matters in which the marital estates were in the tens of millions to the hundreds of millions of dollars, that have included services involving property division, alimony, business valuations, tracing of separate/community assets, divorce-associated tax ramifications, and other financially related issues.

Business Valuations

Business valuations for business litigation and family law litigation matters, as well as valuations of businesses or partial interests in businesses for establishing values for such purposes as purchases or sales, estate taxes, and gifting.

Background in Accounting, Consulting and Tax Services

Prior to devoting practice primarily to business litigation, family law and business valuation matters:

Partner-in-charge of financial accounting services, including audit and other attest engagements, and of formulating, implementing and monitoring the firm's quality control policies and procedures.

Many years of experience in providing business consulting and tax services, including heavy involvement in rendering tax advice and planning, tax compliance, and deliberations with the Internal Revenue Service and other taxing authorities.
